A Thought for the Week Ahead

"All of creation was intended to be part of the Trinity's ongoing dance of loving worship and mutual caring but God does not force that on us
and as we know only too well,
the human race chose to go a different way.
But we are constantly invited back into that relationship and as we choose to return we get to bring our neighbour with us."

Call to Worship (congregational lines in bold)

In mystery and grandeur
we see the face of God

In earthiness and the ordinary
we know the love of Christ

In heights and depths and life and death:
the spirit of God is moving among us

Let us praise God.

Welcome

Praise CH4 111: Holy, holy, holy

1 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty! early in the morning our song shall rise to thee; holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty! God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!	3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee, though the sinful human eye thy glory may not see, only thou art holy; there is none beside thee, perfect in power, in love, and purity.
2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea; cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee, God ever living through eternity	4 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God almighty! All thy works shall praise thy name in earth and sky and sea; holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty! God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Prayer of Confession
The Lord's Prayer

A liturgy of the morning

On the first morning God said: 'Let there be birds.' And God separated voice from voice; and in some voices, God put a song, and the song sang to the land, and to the light, and to the light on the land, and when the people heard it, the morning had begun. The first morning.

And God said that it was Good.

On the second morning God said, 'There will be dreams from the night that will need the light of the morning.' And so God put wisdom in the early hours. The second morning.

And God said that it was Good.

And on the third morning, God said: 'Let there be a certain kind of light that can only be seen in the morning.' And God created gold, and dew, and horizons, and hills in the distance, and faces that look different in the light of the morning, and things that look different in the light of the morning. The third morning.

And God said that it was Good.

And on the fourth morning, God said, 'Sometimes the day will be long. Let there be warmth in the morning, let people sleep for some mornings, and let the rest of the morning be good.' The fourth morning.

And God said that it was Good.

And on the fifth morning, God said: 'There will be people who will rise early every morning, whose day will begin in the night, by the light of moon and stars; they will see the sun rise, these early risers.' And God put a softness at the heart of the dawn. The fifth morning.

And God said that it was Good.

And on the sixth morning, God listened. And there were people working, and people struggling to get out of bed, and there were people making love and people making sandwiches. There were people dreading the day, and people glad that the night was over. And God hoped that they'd survive. And God shone light, and made clouds, and rain, and rainbows, and toast, and coffee, places to love the light and places to hide from the light. Small corners to accompany the lonely, the joyous, the needy and the needed. The sixth morning.

And God said that it was Good.

And on the last morning, God rested. And the rest was good. The rest was very good.

And God said that it was very Good.

Bible Reading: Matthew 28: 16 – 20

The Great Commission

- 16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go.
- 17 When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted.
- 18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
- 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,
- 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Invitation to Holy Communion

Praise CH4 540: I heard the voice of Jesus say

1. I heard the voice of Jesus say, 'Come unto me and rest; lay down, thou weary one, lay down thy head upon my breast': I came to Jesus as I was, so weary, worn, and sad; I found in him a resting-place, and he has made me glad. 2. I heard the voice of Jesus say, 'Behold, I freely give the living water; thirsty one, stoop down and drink, and live': I came to Jesus, and I drank of that life-giving stream; my thirst was quenched, my soul revived, and now I live in him.	3. I heard the voice of Jesus say, 'I am this dark world's Light; Look unto me, thy morn shall rise, and all thy day be bright': I looked to Jesus, and I found in him my Star, my Sun; and in that light of life I'll walk till travelling days are done. Tune: KINGSFOLD – MP 275 ii

Sacrament of Communion

Liturgy of Communion

A Celtic Communion

from A Celtic Liturgy by Pat Robson

Prepare some bread/crackers and wine/juice/water for yourself and your companions

Our Lord bids you welcome and invites you all to his table. Come into his presence. Come and join with the saints in Heaven. Come in faith to eat and drink of his body and blood and to be at one with him in his suffering and his joy.

Amen

We say together:

May the Father circle us and keep us safe within his arms

May God the Son circle us and fill our hearts with love

May God the Holy Spirit circle us and inspire us with his grace

We thank you our Father for this bread and wine, food and drink to bind us to you in a new covenant, a new agreement, a new beginning

We thank you for sending us your Son, who gave his life that we might come to you with hearts washed clean by his love. Who, on his last night on earth, at supper with his friends, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying, 'Take and eat. This is my body, broken for you. Eat this and remember me.'

Broken for me, broken for you. Broken for me, broken for you.

When supper was over he took the cup and when he had given thanks he said, 'This is my blood of the new covenant given for you. Drink this and remember me.'

Given for me, given for you. Given for me, given for you.

Lord Jesus Christ, we remember you with love in our hearts. We remember your healing presence on earth, your patient teaching and your acts of kindness and compassion.

We remember, too, the great dignity you showed when going to your death and the serenity and peace with which you proved to your disciples that death is not the end.

For us, you stepped through the gates of death and led us into a new life, giving us a new vision and a new promise and saying, 'Because I live, you will live also' (John 14:19) and 'I am with you always, even unto the end of the world' (Matt 28:20).

We say together:

As we eat and drink of your body and your blood, make us one with each other, and one with you.
For we are your people and we long with all our hearts, to live with you.

lifting the bread and wine:

This is God's gift to you. The sign of his great love. Eat and drink of this together and take Christ into your heart.

CH4 110: Glory be to God the Father

1 Glory be to God the Father, glory be to God the Son, glory be to God the Spirit, -- great Jehovah, Three in One! Glory, glory, glory, glory while eternal ages run!	3 Glory to the King of angels, glory to the Church's King, glory to the King of nations! Heaven and earth, your praises bring; Glory, glory, glory, glory to the King of glory sing!
2 Glory be to him who loved us, washed us from each spot and stain! Glory be to him who bought us, made us kings with him to reign! Glory, glory, glory, glory to the Lamb that once was slain!	4 Glory, blessing, praise eternal! Thus the choir of angels sings; 'Honour, riches, power, dominion!' Thus its praise creation brings; Glory, glory, glory, glory, glory to the King of kings
